

PROHIBITION BILL BECOMES LAW OVER PRESIDENT'S VETO

CONVENTION OF MINE WORKERS TO BE HELD TOMORROW

Will Draft Reply to Wilson Statement Concerning the Miner's Strike

No Prospect Strike Order Will be Rescinded, Says John Lewis

(By United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 28—With the final decision on whether or not coal miners will strike November 1, less than twenty four hours distant, there seems little possibility that the strike call would be rescinded.
The executive committee of United Mine Workers of America, twenty-five district presidents of coal producing states, and members of the miners schedule committee will meet at headquarters here at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning to draft an answer to President Wilson's appeal that the strike be called off. Lewis called every one of the members on the telephone urging them to attend. Miners are prepared for a 100% strike, it was predicted by officials here.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 28—There are no indications now that the coal strike order will be rescinded according to John Lewis, acting President of the United Mine Workers.

Lewis left for Indiana to attend a meeting of the executive board on mine organizations. He said the board probable would make a reply to President Wilson's demand but emphasized the statement that the board was not called to withdraw the strike call.

Washington, Oct. 28—Several courses which the government might take to prevent the closing of coal mines are being discussed here. Among them are:

1. The Lever food control act makes it punishable to conspire to prevent production of necessities and gives the government power to seize the mines and plants.

2. The present contract between operators and miners was binding. The government could furnish troops to see that miners who wish to continue work despite the strike were unmolested.

Officials here do not believe any of these methods will have to be employed and are confident that miners and operators will see a way to call off the strike.

President's Condition is Same

Washington, Oct. 28—President Wilson's condition this morning was about the same according to information at the White House.

Work has not interfered with the president's condition. It was authoritatively stated by his physicians.

Washington, Oct. 28—"There is no change in the president's condition," said a statement issued at 12:15 by Drs. Grayson, Ruffin and Stitt. "His progress continues. He takes luncheon in a semi-sitting position which aids greatly in the enjoyment of his food and causes no fatigue."

Three Cities Compete for Cinderella Prize

(By United Press)
New York, October 28—The honor of possessing the community Cinderella was jointly claimed today by Chicago, San Francisco and Atlanta. Inquiries among shoe dealers reveal that the women of these three districts possess the smallest feet in the country—size 4½.

St. Paul and Minneapolis are tied for the largest community feet—size 6. Reports were obtained from forty principal cities.

Lighthouse Keeper BLOWN 300 MILES INTO OPEN OCEAN

New York, Oct. 27—Exhausted from hunger and exposure after being adrift for five days in an open boat, Edward Williams, keeper of the Gun Key Lighthouse on the Bahama banks, arrived here on the Mallory liner San Marcos.

Williams left the mainland Oct. 18 for his station in a small boat but a storm came up and he was driven 300 miles out into the open sea before he was picked up by the San Marcos.

Royalty Received At White House

By DON E. CHAMBERLAIN (United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Oct. 28—The White House received its first European monarchs today when King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium called to pay their respect to President and Mrs. Wilson.

Their call was informal, lasting only twenty minutes. It was 10:20 when they reached the executive mansion and 10:30 when they left.

While the Belgian rulers were in the White House, Mrs. Grayson, Ruffin and Stitt were holding the customary morning conference of the president's condition and he did not see the visitors.

Mrs. Wilson greeted them at the door and the king and queen chatted with the "first lady of the land" and Miss Margaret Wilson, the president's daughter. Mrs. Wilson also escorted them to the door and as the queen left she kissed Mrs. Wilson's hand.

With the royal party was Secretary Lansing, Major General J. M. Wright, Major General Hoffman and members of the royal party.

Albert Before Congress

Washington, Oct. 28—The American congress today welcomed King Albert. The senate and the house halted proceedings and heard the Belgian ruler, who has finished a tour that took him across the American continent and back. In his slow English, he said he desired a strengthening of the bonds of friendship between the United States and his country through the changing of ideas and commercial relations.

Prince Leopold walked in beside Senator Hitchcock. King Albert was greeted as "the most welcome man in all the world" and lauded as "friend, defender and ally."

International Labor Conference Opens Tomorrow

German and Austrian Delegates Will Arrive to Attend Although Not Entitled to Seat (By United Press)

Washington, Oct. 28—German delegates to the international labor conference scheduled to open tomorrow will land in the United States Sunday. Austrian delegates are on the way, and will arrive soon after the Germans.

Neither Germany nor Austria are entitled to representation in the conference under the international labor charter of the peace treaty under which the conference was called.

Neutral nations, through their representatives, are expected to make a fight to change conference rules seating the Germans and Austrians. American delegates also are without standing in the conference until congress has ratified the peace treaty.

George McAneny, who, it is said, will be named as United States ambassador to Germany by President Wilson when the peace treaty is ratified. Mr. McAneny was formerly borough of Manhattan president, and has been an earnest supporter of Mr. Wilson and the administration. He is well known in newspaper circles, having been connected with various metropolitan dailies; is an eminent lawyer, and a man prominent in public affairs of city, state and nation. He was born December 24, 1869, at Greenville, N. J.

Cabinet Meeting to be Held Today

To Perfect Plans to Meet Coal Miners Strike—New Industrial Conference Planned

Washington, Oct. 28—President Wilson's cabinet in the regular weekly session was to consider the threatened coal strike and complete plans for a new industrial conference.

The cabinet meeting is originally scheduled for 11 a. m., but was postponed for 4 p. m., because of the visit of the Belgian royalty.

Attorney General Palmer and Secretary of Labor Wilson are working out plans of law enforcement based on the conspiracy section of the Lever food and fuel act and will report to the cabinet today in connection with the strike matters brought before the cabinet.

Today the cabinet session will probably see completion of plans and the personnel for a new industrial conference, which officials believe should be called at the earliest possible moment. The names of those invited will be submitted to the president after the cabinet session today.

Senate Passes Law Over Pres. Wilson's Veto This Afternoon—Vote 65 to 20

(By United Press)
Washington, Oct. 28—The national prohibition enforcement bill providing strict laws for both war time and constitutional prohibition, became a law this afternoon, when the senate passed the measure over the veto of President Wilson by a vote of 65 to 20.

HOUSE PASSES PROHIBITION BILL OVER VETO

Washington, Oct. 27—President Wilson unexpectedly vetoed the prohibition enforcement bill today and within three hours the house had repassed it over his veto by a vote of 176 to 55. The total vote was barely more than a majority of the entire membership.

Will Attempt to Override Veto
Washington, Oct. 28—An attempt to call up the prohibition enforcement bill was made shortly after the senate convened today. Prohibition leaders hope to pass the bill over the president's veto.

Opposition in Senate.
Washington, Oct. 28—The attempt to obtain a speedy vote on the president's veto of the national prohibition enforcement bill encountered opposition in senate. Shortly before senate discussions began it was made known that President Wilson will not lift the ban on war time prohibition until ratification of the peace treaty.

The enforcement act under discussion applied to both war time and constitutional prohibition and will become a law when the senate overrides the president's veto. The house has already overridden the veto.

Washington, Oct. 28—President Wilson has no intention of lifting the war time prohibition ban until the peace treaty is ratified, it was learned at the White House today.

With all indications pointing to an early overriding of the president's veto on the national prohibition enforcement act it was stated the president may lift the ban as soon as he feels legally authorized but no sooner.

Rock County Damage Suits on Trial

Mankato, Minn., Oct. 28—Three of the $100,000 damage suits were up in the United States district court this afternoon resulting from the alleged indignities to residents of Rock county who were painted and tarred and feathered because of anti-American activities.

The case of Mainz suing a number of Luverne residents for $100,000 damage, was to be heard this afternoon.

Viscount Edward Grey, the new British ambassador, wearing the glasses with which he is trying to aid weak eyes. He has indicated that this weakness will probably prevent his being in Washington long.

Early Action on Peace Treaty

Only Consideration of Presidents Veto of Prohibition Bill Will Prevent Vote Today on Last Amendment (By United Press)

Washington, Oct. 28—Prospects for an early senate action of the peace treaty again looked brighter today as senate leaders prepared to force a vote on the Shields and Moses amendments which deals with vote in the league of nations.

The Johnson amendment on this subject was defeated by a vote of 38 to 36 yesterday. The vote came unexpected and many senators were not present. Senator Lodge said yesterday a few more remarks from the senate republican side were yet to be made before the Shields amendment is voted on.

The possibility of the prohibition enforcement bill vetoed yesterday by President Wilson, coming before the senate seems to be the only obstacle in the way of the treaty vote today.

Washington, Oct. 28—The meeting of the Federation of National Unions was postponed indefinitely today because of failure of delegates to arrive.

BUYERS' REPORT ON PAN MOTOR COMPANY SHOWN

Woman Declares 100 Per Cent Dividends Promised by Agent of Stock

Chicago, Oct. 27—Miss Gertrude Bean, a Littleton, Col., school teacher, concluding her testimony today in the trial of officials of the Pan Motor company, charged with using the mails to defraud, identified a number of communications which she turned over to postal inspectors, which the government failed to introduce as evidence in the case.

One document was a report of an investigation made by a committee of Colorado shareholders of Pan Motor stock. The committee visited the company's plant at St. Cloud, Minn., and published a report favorable to the progress made by the corporation in construction work. Attorney Carl Cummins of St. Paul, representing the defense, attempted to show by witnesses that the government suppressed several of the circular letters.

Agreement With Company

Other letters showed that under his agreement with the company, S. C. Pandolfo, fiscal agent, was to pay all expenses of selling stock, promotion, advertising and the cost of perfecting the Pan automobile out of his commission of $5 on each $10 share sold. This sum was described as a "surplus fund," and it was understood that any balance remaining after the payment of all promotion expenses was to be retained by Pandolfo as compensation for his services.

Mrs. Sarah E. Clark, a widow who keeps a rooming house at Bolen, N. M., told of purchasing 29 shares of Pan Motor company stock from C. C. Knowles, a sales agent of the company in January, 1917, for which she paid $260.

Declared Safe Investment

"He was a good talker and showed me letters from bankers and a business men stating the stock was a safe investment. He said the Pan Motor company would pay a dividend of 20 or 25 per cent by May, 1918, and a 100 per cent in dividends inside of three years."

"I refused to buy until he showed me a letter of recommendation from a railroad official, in whom I had great confidence. Then I was convinced and signed the subscription blank."

Circulars Asserted Sent

"He gave us pictures of the Pan car and a lot of circulars showing the company's big plant and telling of the enormous profits we were to make."

The witness said shortly after she realized she had put her money into the wrong thing. She made an unsuccessful effort to get her money back. Instead of returning her money the witness said the company bombarded her with letters and advertising.

Recommendations of Bank President Secured for Three Shares of Stock

Chicago, Oct. 28—"It won't do you any harm and may do a lot of good," was the argument by Samuel C. Pandolfo, president of the Pan Motor Co., to secure the recommendation of P. E. Carried Crew of 35 and Had 31 Passengers Aboard, Loss of Life May Be Greater

(By United Press)

Muskegon, Mich., Oct. 28—Ten persons were reported drowned early today when the lake steamer City of Muskegon, was blown into a pier one mile off the shore and was wrecked. Seven bodies were recovered. A sixty mile gale was blowing.

The reported dead are: John Lynch of Milwaukee; Arthur Dewitt, Milwaukee; Albert Hough, Billings, Mont.; Mrs. Jennie Hopkins, Muskegon; Mrs. Agnes Johnstone, Muskegon; John Amsterr, Manistee, Mich.; Harry Reese, Milwaukee.

The vessel was a combination of freighter and passenger and had a crew of thirty-five. She left Milwaukee with thirty-one passengers. The vessel was passing between two piers which project one mile into Lake Michigan when a great wave lifted the boat's side against the south pier. Captain Miller ordered the people on deck. The water suddenly receded sucking the vessel down.

Loss of life may be higher than at first estimated. The number of rescued could not be determined. The boat sank in ten minutes.

Some Escaped

Muskegon, Oct. 28—Seven persons were killed early today in a storm on Lake Michigan when the steamer City of Muskegon was blown against a pier. Eight others were rescued eight hours after the wreck.

Others of the passengers and the crew escaped from the vessel by leaping from the vessel to the wind-swept surface of the pier.

Son of Multi-Millionaire Was to be Held for $200,000 Ransom

(By United Press)

Toledo, Ohio, Oct. 28—A plot to kidnap Edsel Ford, son of Henry Ford, millionaire automobile manufacturer, was frustrated by the arrest of four men, police told today.

The alleged conspiracy exposed by Floyd Gray, detective, posing as an ex-convict to gain the confidence of the men, told the police that a bell-hop in a hotel hatched the plot. The men intended to drug and hold him for $200,000 ransom.

when a meeting was arranged at a hotel. Pandolfo made no attempt to sell him any stock. In return for his recommendation, Jordan said he was to receive three shares of stock. He testified he did not receive these. The tribunal did not offer a communication from the company. Pandolfo promised Jordan he would not use the letter of recommendation locally, but Jordan soon discovered that this promise was being violated. Jordan testified he demanded the return of his letter but Pandolfo refused. He said Jordan then offered $25 for it. "I would not take $5,000 apiece for these letters," Pandolfo is alleged to have replied.

HUSBAND FOUND DEAD:
WIFE IS ORDERED HELD

Bound with ropes the body of Otto Josephson was found dead in Minneapolis by the police in a gas-filled bedroom of his home at 621 Nineteenth avenue south. His wife, Mrs. Helma Josephson, is being held pending an investigation.

The discovery was made at 11 a. m. According to A. C. Hobbs, deputy coroner, the man had been dead several hours.

In a story told to the police, Mrs. Josephson declared that because there was no coal in the house Saturday night she sent her two children, Helga and Helma, to a neighbor's home, while she passed the night in a downtown hotel.

Maude Nelson, a Salvation army worker, learned of the death and with Mrs. Josephson called the police. A marriage license was found torn in pieces on the floor, the police say.

BUYS COFFIN FOR WIFE:
ELOPES WITH AFFINITY

Mandan, N. D., Oct. 27.—Stephen Nastrovatty, a resident of Dunn county, is alleged to have established a record for cruel treatment of his wife.

It is stated that while his wife was seriously sick, Nastrovatty removed her to the home of a friend at Dickinson, where she later died. After leaving her at the house, it is alleged, he purchased a coffin for her and eloped with an affinity.

Nastrovatty was arrested and convicted in district court here on a charge of desertion.

Gentleness.

Gentleness is a natural element. To train, restrain or subdue the character so that it will manifest this virtue is not to give to that character the element of gentleness. The result will be to tame but not to make gentle. When one is able to control by watchfulness his actions, so that they result in gentleness, he possesses something less than gentleness. Gentleness must be natural to be truly genuine. Where love, latent and fervent, abounds, that is the sort of soul that possesses gentleness. It is out of the abundance of the heart that the mouth should speak. It is from the abundance of the regenerate spirit that the soul shall unveil the grace of gentleness. In myriad relations, Disposition, temper and manner are in the province of this virtue. They must possess it.—Christian Intelligencer.

Cotton in the Far North.

Flowers grow profusely in many parts of the arctic regions. One of the most frequently met with is the cotton plant. Northern miners have a saying that wherever cotton blooms, ice is not far below. One may walk for miles, between the months of June and August, through fields of cotton plants in flower, the white, silky tops swaying in the arctic breeze. At present little use is made of it, from an industrial point of view, except where the down is gathered for filling pillows. The flowers bloom luxuriantly, as is natural where the sun shines continuously during the summer months. Among others, the flower-hunter may gather purple larkspur, bluebells, monk's hood, primroses, asters, lilies-of-the-valley and even a kind of arctic geranium, pink or white in color.

But Father Can't.

It has been our observation that when a holiday comes around everybody takes advantage of it except those who need it the most.

REVIVAL OF SEPARATE SKIRT

Garment for Dressy Wear Promises to Hold Favor According to Fashion Correspondent.

The season is marked by the revival of the separate skirt for dressy wear. Some novel forms of drapery and looped panels promise to play a prominent part in the autumn skirts, observes a prominent fashion writer. Lines of distinction characterize the models of recent importation, and the soft silks and satins lend themselves gracefully to the voluminous drapery.

The newest skirts are long enough to cover the foot tops and quite wide at the bottom will vary from a yard and a quarter to a yard and three-quarters, with all widths between. Silk and satin models are inclined to be a bit wider.

One smart skirt interpreting the autumn vogue was shown in supple black satin and pale gray crepe. It was draped low about the hips, but in great cascades at the sides. These drapes were turned inside out and faced with the gray crepe. A wide ribbon girdle of the material wrapped itself snugly about the waist.

To complete this skirt, one wears a lovely blouse of pale gray, georgette embroidered with sparkling jet beads. For a pleasing change one might also choose a bodice of black satin with gray trimmings, to harmonize with the skirt.

Minnesota Suffragists

Minneapolis, Oct. 28.—Minnesota suffragists were organizing today—preparing for the political events of next year and legislative sessions.

Hundreds of women were here for the opening convention of the League of Women Voters of Minnesota.

Americanization, the women believe, is the most important problem at hand. They have declared their purposes to be:

A program of education and legislation to improve the American electorate.

First, through citizenship classes to overcome illiteracy, ignorance and indifference to the duties of citizenship.

Second, through committees to prepare and present a legislative program to be acted upon by the league.

The committees suggested are: American Citizenship, Protection of Women in Industry, Child Labor, Improvement of laws concerning Civil Status of Women, Food Supply and Demand, Research.

Mrs. Andreas Ueland of Minneapolis was temporary chairman of the convention this morning. The morning session was given over to temporary organization.

Mrs. Edward F. Costigan was the chief speaker of the first session, outlining to the women the aims of the national league with regard to food supply and demand.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, nationally prominent as a suffragist, was to address the afternoon session. Her subject was "What is the Proposed League of Women Voters and Why?"

Miss Hope McDonald and Mrs. Thomas G. Winter were also to speak.

Tonight there will be a dinner in honor of Mrs. Catt and other leaders of the movement.

Child welfare will be the subject of tomorrow morning's session at which Miss Julia Lathrop will speak. Dr. E. J. Hueneke, director of the Infant Welfare Society will also address the session. Social hygiene will be the subject of the Wednesday afternoon program. Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCullough, Dr. Mabel S. Ulrich and Miss Charlotte G. Ashbrook are to speak.

The mass meeting at the auditorium tomorrow evening will close the convention. Men have been especially invited to attend the meeting. Mrs. Catt is to speak on "Our Nation, What We Do For It?"

No appointed delegates are attending the conference. Women throughout the state, however, have been invited to show an interest in view of the fact that federal suffrage has been assured them.

Stefansson Compares Him With the Fox, to the Disadvantage of the Smaller Animal

The wisdom of the fox is not so evident as the saying is widespread, but the more I see of wolves the more respect I have for their intelligence, which is unique among the nonhuman inhabitants of the North.

The second day on the new land I met a wolf that came running toward me at first, for he could not fail to mistake me at a distance for a caribou, but when he got within two hundred yards and could see more plainly he realized my strangeness and, what is truly remarkable, inferred that I might be dangerous. This wolf could certainly never have seen a human being before, and the only dark thing of size comparable to mine that he had ever seen must have been either a caribou or a muskox. The caribou are his prey, and while he seldom kills a muskox he at least has no reason to fear that exceptionally clumsy and slow-moving animal.

But at two hundred yards this wolf paused and, after a good look that satisfied him that I was something new in his experience, commenced to circle me at that distance to get my wind. When he got it took him off at top speed. The similarly unsophisticated foxes of this region will commonly run within ten or fifteen yards of you and follow you around for miles, barking like a toy dog following a pedestrian.—Vilhjalmur Stefansson in Harper's Magazine.

GIVE THE PEOPLE FULL VALUE.

St. Louis county voted $7,500,000 for the building of paved highways in that county. The commissioners at a recent meeting rejected all bids. There was a fight on between the concrete and bitulithic bidders, and the concrete men appeared to have the better of the argument. The Duluth News-Tribune commends the action of the commissioners and accepts their decision as evidence that they propose to give the taxpayers the fullest value possible for their money. Bitulithic is a splendid paving for cities when well laid, but it is in the judgment of experts too expensive for country roads, and concrete roads under the state and federal specification appears to be the best type of roads for general use, cost considered. One interesting feature of the St. Louis controversy was the intimation by Engineer Mullen of the state highway commission, that the state would pay no more towards the building of bitulithic roads than it would for concrete, and the extra cost would have to be paid by the county in case the former was selected. The News-Tribune makes this comment:

"The people of the state want good roads; they want the full value of their money; they want permanent highways, but they do not want and will not have extravagance in their road building."

"They will not pay out their money for a mere name nor to fatten the incomes of the owners of a patent, nor to pay their bills for the promotion of their material. Concrete has no promotion and needs none. The people of this county had it alone in mind when they voted $7,500,000 in road bonds. They will all have it in mind when they approve the Babcock amendment, and if they believe their money is to be used for a material that is not so good, but costs a fourth to a third more, they will beat the amendment."

"The state highway board should at once take the position of Mr. Mullen stated here and announce it. It is the board's duty to protect the people and they can do nothing that will more certainly insure the adoption of the amendment. This is what we all want, and as for the News-Tribune we intend to do all we can to protect the voters and to play fair with them."

This will be endorsed by all the people of the state, and especially by the owners of automobiles and trucks who are to pay for the entire cost of building seven thousand miles of paved roads in Minnesota.

There is naturally objection to paying a Boston firm, a royalty of 25 cents a square yard for roads, when an equally good highway can be built at much less cost.

People who have driven over the bitulithic stretch of road from Osseo to Anoka, and then over the concrete road from Anoka to Elk River, say that the latter is much smoother, and is free from the "waxiness" of the bitulithic covering, which is very pronounced on the paving of West St. Germain street in St. Cloud.—St. Cloud Journal-Press.

INFLUENCE

The only influence worth having is the influence you yourself create. Money can be bestowed or bequeathed by a rich man, but the things most worth while cannot.

The man who wields a wide, wholesome, helpful influence is the man who has mastered both his job and himself, the man who has acquired wisdom by painstaking study, effort and experience, the man whose parts and character are respected by others, the man whose personality inspires admiration, the man whose achievements testify to his worth.

The influence possessed by others cannot do much for you unless you have done something to enlist their influence on your behalf.

A letter of introduction cannot do that. An invitation to lunch or dinner in order to meet the man whose influence you court cannot do it.

You have to make your own impression upon him. You have to do something that convinces him you are all right, that you will measure up to expectations, that you will fill the bill, that you will deliver the goods.

You have, in other words, to "sell" your worth to him.

Deliver the goods.

Part of your reward will consist of influence.—Forbes Magazine.

CHANGES IN ORBIT OF MOON

Explains Fact That Eclipses Do Not Occur on or About Same Dates Every Year

Lunar eclipses always occur at full moon, or when the sun and moon are in opposition, and are caused by the moon passing through earth's shadow. As the moon in her course passes the sun once every month, and also places the earth between herself and the sun once a month, it is evident that if she moved in the plane of the ecliptic there would be either a total or annular eclipse of the sun and a total eclipse of the moon every month. They do not happen every full moon because the moon's orbit is inclined to the ecliptic the great circle of the heavens round which the sun seems to travel from west to east in the course of a year, allowing her to pass the sun to an angle of nearly 5 degrees and 9 minutes to the north and south of his track, preventing such a frequent occurrence of eclipses. From the magnitude of the angle of inclination of her orbit to the ecliptic an eclipse can only occur on a full moon happening when the moon is at or near one of her nodes, or points where her orbit intersects the ecliptic. Therefore, if the moon does not travel on the ecliptic, which would result in a lunar eclipse every full moon, it is logical to say that the moon does not follow the same orbit year after year. If the moon followed the same orbit year after year lunar eclipses would occur on or about the same dates every year, but the fact is that they might occur any full moon.—Kansas City Star.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Park Tuesday and Wednesday

When news was brought to the Lasky studio that Houdini, the famous handcuff king, was coming to make "The Grim Game," his Paramount-Artcraft picture, which will be on view at the new Park theatre tonight and tomorrow, all the other stars and lesser lights working there planned several entertainments with Houdini as the center of attraction. They produced shackles and chains, but he walked out of them as though he possessed the secret of the fourth dimension. He then led an enthusiastic group to the railroad roundhouse at Los Angeles, where he permitted himself to be chained to the tracks and escaped before the approaching engine could reach him. Cecil B. DeMille suggested that he be tied to a plank before the teeth of a busy buzz saw. Houdini agreed, and cheated the saw by losing himself in a twinkling.

But the famous self-liberator saved his greatest stunts for the picture, and "The Grim Game" is said to be chock-full of sensational episodes that out-thrill anything ever before shown on the stage or the screen. Ann Forrest is leading woman, and a notable cast helps Houdini develop the exciting mystery story, written by Arthur B. Reeve, of "Craig Kennedy" fame.

"KISS ME AGAIN"

The musical comedy which will be used by Frederick V. Bowers during his coming engagement at the New Park theatre on Friday is "Kiss Me Again." The author, Walter Healey, has succeeded admirably, it is said, in fitting Mr. Bowers with a comedy role which furnishes him with the fullest opportunity for the most effective work of his career.

Mr. Bowers is remembered by local play goers as the comedian-star of "The Sweetest Girl in Paris," "The Girl's Question," "Commencement Days," "Roger Brothers shows, McIntyre and Heath's Ham Tree Company," "His Bridal Night," "I'm So Happy," and many other Broadway musical productions. The principal song hits are "Kiss Me Again," "If I Ever Get You," "Someone," "There's a Dear Little Girl in a Dear Little Town," "My Vampire Girl," "Sahara," "Love Me All the Time," "I Love That Time," "If You Know What I Know," etc.

The book tells of an old money shark who sees the photograph of a girl whose father is under heavy financial obligations to him. He falls in love and writes a letter proposing marriage. Afterwards he feels that he has been a bit premature and sends his nephew to New York to see if the girl is really as beautiful as he appears in her photograph. The nephew falls in love with the girl and puts his uncle off the track by reporting that the girl is homely, smokes cigarettes and drinks. The old man is disgusted and leaves the country declaring he will never return. The nephew marries the girl and all goes happily until the uncle returns. Then the fun commences and the nephew's efforts to keep his secret from his uncle furnishes no end of comedy interest. Prominent in the cast supporting Mr. Bowers are Alma Youlin, Pierre Young, Mark Lindner, William DeVeto, Frank Warner, Rae Warner, Rose Kessner and the famous Bowers chorus of noted stage beauties. A special feature of the performance here will be a symphony orchestra. The seat sale is one of the largest in years.

BEAUTY SECRETS!

Where she gets her good looks, her healthy skin, her pink cheeks, is known to every one, because it is apparent that it is not due to cosmetics, paint and powder. But the true womanly beauty comes from good health, and this good health is a woman's secret.

A body free from pains and aches comes with a tonic known for over fifty years as the best "temperance" tonic and nerve for woman—namely, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. WHY is it that more and more smokers (millions now) are getting together with Chesterfields?

First of all, fine tobaccos. Our own buyers in the Orient send us the pick of the finest Turkish varieties (Xanthi, Cavalla, Smyrna and Samsoun). We blend these by a secret method with specially choice Domestic leaf.

This method brings out new qualities of flavor—a smoothness, a richness, a mellowness that go right to the spot. That's the reason Chesterfields satisfy.

OBSERVE ROOSEVELT 61ST ANNIVERSARY

Public Exercises Held at the Chamber of Commerce Monday Evening, Following Club Dinner

C. A. ALLBRIGHT PRESIDED

Speakers Included Judge Walter F. Wieland, Mrs. W. C. Cobb, Mrs. J. A. Thabes, Rev. Wolner

The Roosevelt anniversary program to which the public was invited was held at the Chamber of Commerce rooms on Monday evening and was preceded by the club dinner given by the house and social committee to which the ladies too had been invited.

The Dinner

The menu was an extensive one and its cooking and serving reflected great credit on all concerned. Mrs. George R. West cooked the forty pounds of roast, the potatoes and gravy. The house and social committee did the serving.

The menu included prime roast beef, brown gravy, Crow Wing county potatoes mashed in cream, dill pickles, Ericsson Bros. hot buns, Brainerd Creamery butter, White House Java, cream and sugar, Anderson & Engstrom's pumpkin pie, American cheese. One hundred and ten people had supper, 81 tickets being sold. The ladies were loud in their praise of the arrangements made and said they had solved the problem now as to why father never came home to the parental meal when a club dinner was in sight at the Chamber of Commerce.

Roosevelt Exercises

Judge C. A. Allbright, as county chairman of the Roosevelt Memorial committee, presided, and in an introductory speech paid tribute to Roosevelt. He explained the plan by which it was intended to aid in building a memorial to his memory. Every contributor, no matter how large or small was the donation, would receive a certificate attesting to his giving to the fund.

The high school orchestra played "America" and the audience joined in the song.

Judge W. F. Wieland

Judge Walter F. Wieland in his address stated it was proper to meet and consider what Roosevelt stood for and to dedicate ourselves to the task of perpetuating his principles. Roosevelt never believed in anything on earth, his love was for simplicity.

His last public utterance was addressed to the Defense League which held a meeting in New York and at which time he eulogized the flag and what it meant. "There is but one flag," wrote Roosevelt. "There is no room for the red flag."

BRAINERD BOY IN LABORATORY

B. C. Ford, Graduate of University of Minnesota and Experienced Pathologist

NOW LOCATED IN MOORHEAD

During War He Had Charge of the Chemical Laboratory at Camp Dodge in Iowa

The following clipping from the Moorhead Daily News refers to a Brainerd boy, B. C. Ford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Ford, who has gained renown as a chemist and pathologist. The article states:

Drs. Hagen & Bottolfson of Moorhead have completed arrangements for establishing a first class chemical laboratory. B. C. Ford, who has had much experience in this line, has been engaged to take charge of the work and has reached this city. Mr. Ford is an experienced pathologist and bacteriologist, and has a B. A. degree from the University of Minnesota. He had charge of the chemical laboratory at Camp Dodge, which was one of the largest in any of the army camps. He was at one time in charge of the health laboratory of the University of North Dakota, and was director of the Minot, N. D., laboratory. He also served as an assistant to Dr. McCallum of John Hopkins medical college for some time.

Mr. Ford, whose home is at Brainerd, left last night for the Twin Cities to see that all the apparatus for the local laboratory was being shipped and gotten here at once. When this part of the firm's office is installed, Moorhead will have one of the most completely equipped laboratories in this part of the country.

shores all aliens capable of assimilating American institutions.

His funeral was plain and simple, the ceremony being typical of the man. He loved peace as much as any man, but he would fight, if necessary, to maintain the right. He preached straight thinking and straight acting. No nation, said Roosevelt, can rise higher than the level of its own citizenship.

In conclusion Judge Wieland read excerpts from Roosevelt's letters recently published.

Quartet Sings

A quartet composed of John Bye, G. S. Swanson, S. F. Alderman and A. C. Mraz sang very acceptably, the two hymns being favorites of Roosevelt. The first was "How Firm a Foundation," and the closing one, "Onward Christian Soldier." The piano accompaniment was played by Mrs. W. F. Wieland.

Mrs. W. C. Cobb

Mrs. W. C. Cobb spoke of "Roosevelt as a Man of Letters." Roosevelt she said, addressed his messages while president to the people. To them he appealed for support. He was against the rule of one class. The people as a whole stood highest in his estimation. His literary work was reviewed in brief.

Mrs. J. A. Thabes

Mrs. J. A. Thabes spoke of "Roosevelt as a Student of Nature." Roosevelt had keen, accurate powers of observation. He was a lover of the great out-of-doors, and understood its varying appeal. He loved the companionship of great naturalists. He believed in the conservation of wild birds and animals, in game refuges and in square dealing, true sportsmanship when engaged in hunting.

Rev. H. J. Wolner

Rev. H. J. Wolner, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, closed with a final glowing eulogy of Roosevelt. He praised the former president's unerring accuracy in hitting the nail on the head and never side-stepping. Though born in wealth, he never inherited any of the tendencies which affected the idle rich. He was strenuous by nature and eagerly sought to broaden and strengthen character as well as frame of body. Character of others, no matter how poor in worldly goods, who had accomplished things for the good of humanity, appealed to him. Roosevelt never forgot his friends.

It is only the trivial man, and no Roosevelt, said Rev. Wolner, who measures men by their clothes and money. Roosevelt was a rich man, but no snob. The only two classes Roosevelt separated humanity into were the honest and dishonest.

F. T. Lincoln

F. T. Lincoln, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, was to talk on "Roosevelt, From a Newspaper Man's Standpoint as Seen at Washington," but was excused because busy with secretarial work. Mr. Lincoln during Roosevelt's term was a lieutenant of the capital police at Washington and saw much of Roosevelt.

Steffanson Survivor at San Francisco

(By United Press)

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 28—One of the two survivors of the Steffanson expedition, for two years marooned on Banks Island, Alaska, James R. Crawford of New York, was here today. He arrived on the schooner Herman. He had not seen the United States for 37 years and was unaware of America's entry into the European war and that the war was ended.

Crawford left Nome, Alaska in 1916. His enforced stay on Banks Island was because of the wreck of the Mary Sacks, Steffanson's vessel.

LAST LOG SAWED IN LITTLE FALLS

Pine Tree Manufacturing Company, Operating 28 Seasons, Closes its Sawmill Monday

SAWMILL WAS BUILT IN 1891

Began its First Season's Run April 26, 1892—Many Men With Co. Over Quarter Century

Brainerd, which years ago lost its large sawmill and then had a period of reconstruction adjusting itself to conditions, now has a fellow feeling for Little Falls which lost its sawmill industry Monday morning. The Little Falls Transcript carries this story on its mill:

The Pine Tree Manufacturing company whistle was blown this morning at exactly 10 o'clock, closing a local institution that has been in operation for the past 28 seasons. The mill was built in 1891 and began the first season's run on April 26, 1892.

The closing of the mill here today does not mean the immediate cutting off of the lumber in luster. The planer will be open for at least another year and the office of the company will not be closed for some time. The crew will be employed at the plant at least days, as a large amount of work is to be done in cleaning up.

Messrs. R. D. Musser and C. A. Weyerhaeuser came to Little Falls in 1891 and bought the mill then being operated on the east side of the river. That year they started building the new mill which has since been in operation. Mr. Musser came from Muscatine, Ia., and Mr. Weyerhaeuser came from Rock Island. Since their arrival they have always been for a greater Little Falls and have given unreservedly to anything that was the betterment of the community or the welfare of the people in the community. There has always existed a friendly feeling between the employees and employers. The owners of the company took pride today in saying that they considered the men a capable and reliable crew and had always enjoyed an association with them. The following is a list of names of men who have been with the company from its beginning and is self explanatory as to the relation that has existed between the officers and the men of the company:

T. Amo, T. O. Berg, Jos. Supa, M. C. Davis, Ed. Fournier, Ed. Hughes, Peter Johnson, Gus Peterson, Nels Nelson, Napoleon Varno, Jerry Jarvis, Ed. Bouck, Alfred Peterson, Eric Peterson, Peter Ploof, Vital Rasicot, Herman Uisch, Frank Sobieski.

Last week, before the release of the night crew, the payroll of the mill was about 450. It is now 250 and will probably be around 200 during the winter.

The list of names given does not include a large number who came here a year or two after the mill started. Many of the employees have been with the company over 20 years and several over 25 years.

 BRAINERD'S ODDEST STORIES OF TODAY *****

Two schools of thought have arisen in Brainerd. One says we are due to get some delayed Indian summer weather, that the snow on the ground will melt, followed by several days of slush and then some glorious belated October days will follow. The other school hunches its shoulders, points to the snow on the ground, the thermometer which indicated 7 above zero Monday and says winter is here to stay.

$53,000 IN WHISKY IS STOLEN IN TWO RAIDS

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 27—Whisky valued at approximately $53,000 was stolen by robbers in two raids on warehouses here early this morning. The first robbery occurred at the warehouse of the Levy Distilling company, when four men drove up in a wagon, took 150 cases of whisky.

BABCOCK FINDS ROAD SENTIMENT STRONG IN NORTH MINNESOTA

C. M. Babcock, state highway commissioner, back in St. Paul from an extended inspection tour of the state roads, declared he found sentiment in Northern Minnesota almost unanimous for the good road amendment.

Accompanied by J. H. Mullen, deputy commissioner, Mr. Babcock went from St. Paul through St. Cloud, Little Falls, Brainerd, Walker, Park Rapids, Bemidji, Bagley, Clear Brook, Red Lake Falls, Thief River Falls, Roseau, Warroad, Baudette, International Falls, Northome, Grand Rapids, Hibbing, Virginia, Duluth and back to St. Paul.

"We went to inspect the road which runs from Bemidji to International Falls. By next year we will have a good passable gravel road between these points. It will not be the highest class gravel road, but it will be a good one and will take care of the very heavy traffic between these two points.

"Nowhere did we find any sentiment against good roads and as the people understand the proposed amendment, they will vote for it almost as a unit in Northern Minnesota, and the same sentiment soon will prevail in other parts of the state.

"We found the roads as a whole in very good shape, and being maintained as they should be. There are some bad spots, but it is not general."

CZECHO-SLOVAKS TO ATTEND CONGRESS

Two Women Delegates Will Represent Poland at International Gathering on October 23.

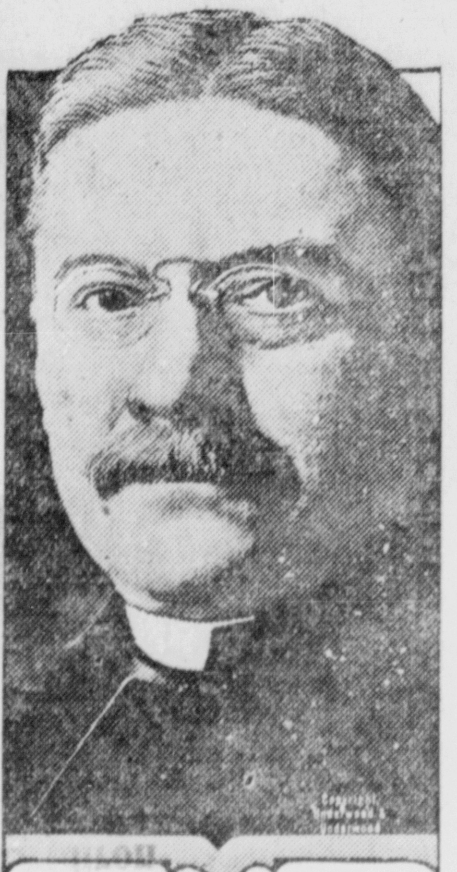

Two industrial women workers are on their way from Czechoslovakia and four on their way from Poland to attend the International Congress of Working Women in Washington, October 23d, according to cables received by Miss Mary Anderson, secretary of the committee on International Women's Trade Union League of America, who is in charge of arrangements.

Miss Anderson has also been advised that the Telephone Operators' Association of the Argentine will send a representative to the Congress at the earliest possible moment that transportation facilities will permit. Two delegates are also en route from Belgium, and others from England, Switzerland, Japan and Italy.

The Radish.

Who disdains the humble radish? Certainly not Miss Trouard-Riolle, a young French woman who has chosen the radish as the subject of her theme for the doctor's degree of the Faculté de Paris. The radish, it now turns out, is no mere mushroom of the vegetable world. Besides its edible qualities it wears the halo of tradition. Hence the enthusiasm of Miss Trouard-Riolle. She has discovered, after arduous research, that the radish was known of the Egyptians and of the Chinese. As yet research has not provided any clue to the whereabouts of the radish from the early times to the beginning of the fifteenth century, when it entered France in varied coats of black, of white, and red. It must be left to Miss Trouard-Riolle, or others of the same indefatigable curiosity to discover.

Biscuit of Ancient Origin.

The biscuit is in reality the oldest form of bread. Nobody knows when the process of fermentation was introduced in baking, but it is certain, that the making of simple cakes with flour and water and without yeast—that is, biscuits—dates from the highest antiquity, for such biscuits have been found among neolithic remains. The Greeks and Romans had advanced from the primitive form of bread, but they baked biscuits for special occasions, for use in military campaigns and on voyages. The Romans called this form of bread "panis nauticus," while the Greeks used for it a term meaning "bread twice put into the fire." The word biscuit means, of course, twice baked, but the ancient practice of a double baking has long been abandoned.

Real Butterflies as Ornaments.

The mounting of real butterflies as millinery ornaments is a work of great skill, and one in which the clever fingers of the Frenchwoman are almost indispensable. The insect to be utilized is first left for a day upon damp sand in order to soften it and make it easier of manipulation. Both sides of the wings are then covered with a transparent white alcohol varnish, and it is at once backed with sateen of an appropriate shade, according to a writer in Wide World. When dry, this stuff is carefully cut round so as to exactly fit the butterfly, which is then mounted on a wire—a light and graceful object for a modiste.

A YOUNG WOMAN AT FIFTY or AN OLD WOMAN AT THIRTY

Women who use New Form of Liquid Iron to build up and enrich the blood possess real secret of Youth

The real difference between an old woman of thirty and a young woman of fifty is one of health and bodily vigor. The secret of Youth is nothing more mysterious than this. The blood is perhaps the most important factor in maintaining health in women. You need no other evidence than to look around you among the women of your acquaintance. The sick and ailing and pale are anemic, listless and colorless—the lack of rich red blood is plainly apparent in their appearance. The woman whose blood is healthy and full of vitality always has red cheeks, a good complexion and a body that is supple, active and tingling with energy.

The most important thing the blood needs to enrich it and enable it to carry life and vigor to all parts of the body is Iron.

And the most successful and reliable method of putting this great essential into the blood is through the use of a natural form of soluble iron, known as Acid Iron Mineral. Thousands of women have found health in this way, and have been able to retain the attractiveness of youth in spite of the advancing years.

Acid Iron Mineral contains no alcohol or injurious drugs—it will not blacken the teeth, and druggists will refund the purchase price if you are not satisfied with the improvement it brings.

Callahan Brothers Who Probably Will Face Each Other at Center When Yale and Princeton Meet on Gridiron

Mike Callahan

Tim Callahan

There is likely to be trouble in the Callahan family when the Yale and Princeton football teams meet this fall. Tim is captain of the Yale eleven and plays centre. His brother Mike seems to have the best in the Yale line if they only let him battle against Tim. These brothers are the best of friends, but when they have met in athletic competition in the past brotherly love was shelved.
